New Awards Recognize Bailey Architects' Renovation and Design Innovation

Bailey Architects' clients/projects are the proud recipients of:

- a 2008 Good Brick Award, from the Greater Houston Preservation Alliance, for St. Anne Catholic School's renovation of the church's original 1929 parish hall.
- Best of 2007 Award for "Best of Renovation/Private," from Texas Construction Magazine, for Rice University's Fondren Library, renovated in association with Boston-based Shepley Bulfinch Richardson & Abbott.
- Best Welcome Center, from the Sunbelt Builders Show 2007 Star Awards, for the Bridgeland Welcome Center in northwest Houston.

The awards are a testament to the firm's continuing commitment to providing quality work for our clients and to our productive and rewarding partnerships with consultants and contractors.

We are excited about the new year and upcoming projects, and look forward to sharing our future accomplishments with you.
